

THE HERITAGE HORN

Newsletter of Heritage Hunt Golf & Country Club

April 2003

Volume 5, No. 4

And the Curtain Goes Up on the First Show of HH Little Theater: “Don't Say No to the USO”

Most all are familiar with the fact that our community is amok with talent—people with impressive creative talents and/or professional, military and/or civil service backgrounds. Ah, but did you know many of those same people can sing, dance, and act up a storm.

Enter Bets Knepley, who has participated in senior adult theater and thoroughly enjoyed it. So, armed with a strong drive and indomitable spirit, Bets took it on her own to initiate a Little Theater in our community.

More than 40 eager thespians came to the initial meeting—solid enough support for Bets to proceed with going forward and casting a show, while taking on the formidable role of director. Ably assisted by Stage Manager Jane Becker, Choreographer Lynn Levvis, Rehearsal Pianist Susan Wright, and Musical Director Marie Phillips, rehearsals are now underway and going strong.

So, on May 7 or May 8, sit back and enjoy a delicious “All American” dinner followed by the Little Theatre’s first offering, “Don’t Say No to the USO,” a patriotic, upbeat one-act musical performance that will get your toes tapping and your vocal chords humming.

*Tickets are now available at a cost of $25; this includes a fried chicken dinner*, the show, and a donation to the USO. For reservations, call one of the following: Gayle Chisholm (5420), Arlene Maroney (5076), Sandy Mills (5175) or Midge Teahan (5863). Tickets must be purchased in advance and there will be a paid reservation list at the door on the nights of the performance.*

*fried chicken, potato salad, corn bread, green salad, sliced tomatoes, and apple pie with ice cream