Special Thanks

We are grateful to Caron Silva, Peggy Ganey and Peggy's friends in the Clipped Wings Association for trusting us with their flight attendant uniforms, pins, and accessories, to add authenticity to the production.

Thanks, too, to the Little Theater of Alexandria for loaning us props from its production of Boeing Boeing.

Directors' Note

We extend our deep appreciation to the cast and crew for all their hard work in making this performance possible. The cast put in countless hours learning their complex lines, rehearsing, and mastering movements which required precision timing. It was not an easy task.

The crew also contributed numerous hours preparing the set, working on sound and lighting, managing the stage, applying makeup, publicizing the production, coordinating costumes, managing reservations, and greeting you at the door.

We hope you enjoy the show and all their efforts.

Cast in Order of Appearance

Georgiana Ide as Gloria

This marks my third appearance on the HHLT stage, in 3-years. I am so pleased to be working with this very talented cast, dedicated directors and tireless and creative stage and production crews. If you're not a member of HHLT, please consider joining to share your talents, on stage and off. Enjoy the play and let's find out if "three really is too many!"

John Johnson as Robert

I am delighted to make my HHLT debut with a great cast in this classic French farce. My sincere thanks to Walt and Betty for the opportunity to be on board for this trip and to my wife, Rebecca, for encouraging me to continue the journey. So, fasten your seat belt and get ready for a hilarious flight. "It's not impossible."

Gene Schmiel as Bernard

Having portrayed a mass murderer, a mad scientist, and a lunatic recently, it really was a great change for me to be cast as the romantic lead in this hilarious play. Join us in following Bernard's mathematically and perfectly organized love-life, until one unforgettable day! With this cast and crew under the able direction of Betty and Walt, I know you'll have a great time. Enjoy the show!

Kathryn Schmiel as Gabriella

This is my second role in an HHLT production. From a middle-aged housewife I now have the opportunity to play a twenty-something Italian air hostess. What fun it is to try out various personalities, ages, and costumes. Acting lets you become temporarily someone totally different. Thanks to Betty and Walt the chance to be "Gabriella," and to the entire cast and crew for all their support and encouragement.

Ginny McCardle as Berthe

This is my fifth play with HHLT. The cast is having lots of fun with Boeing Boeing. Thanks for all the support from the crew. A special thanks goes to Betty and Walt, who have had to work really hard to keep us all airborne. It isn't easy you know.

Joan Patton as Gretchen

This is the third play I have had the privilege to be in. Never in my wildest dreams did I think I would ever be on stage. I guess there was a secret actress lurking within - what a fabulous ride this has been! Joining HHLT was such a great decision.
