

Heritage Hunt Little Theater PLAY TIME September 2019

Contents

HHLT Annual Picnic

HHLT Fall Production

July Meeting Review

Nominations

October Date Change

Arts Alive

Prince William Little Theater

Sterling Playmakers

Acting Opportunity

Prez Sez

Busy times ahead – the annual picnic is next week and tickets for our fall plays are now available. Also, please consider running for the HHLT board and also directing the next play for the spring!

ALOHA!!

Hlittletheater.org

Dates to Remember

Saturday, September 7—Annual HHLT picnic (and September meeting) at Andy Mays's, 4 pm, 13485 Victory Gallop Way. See information on page 2.

October 15, 16, and 17---Fall Production of I'm Herbert and Lost in Cyberspace. See article on page 2.

Tuesday, October 22---General Meeting, 7 pm, Marsh Mansion Parlor.

You Are Invited to

Heritage Hunt Little Theater's

Annual Picnic

"Blue Hawaii"

Saturday, September 7

4 pm

At Andy Mays's Home

13485 Victory Gallop Way

Beverages and entrees provided.

Music, games, prizes

Please bring a side dish (salads, fruits, veggies, finger food, cheeses and crackers, desserts)

Hawaiian dress optional!

FALL PRODUCTION

Production of HHLT's Fall Productions are well under way. Starting in July the casts of each of the one act plays have been rehearsing for their parts in the comedies. The plays which will be presented on October 15, 16, and 17 have two separate casts. The first play, I'm Herbert, features John Johnson and Ginny McCardle as two seniors trying to remember who they are. The second, Lost in Cyberspace, has Walt Meyer, Kathy Carrico, and Gene Schmiel playing the roles of a couple struggling to use their new TV remote and an equally frustrated techie. The experienced directors, Ina Mayer and Bill Harrison, have selected two hilarious plays for HHLT's 34th production. Tickets (yellow form) are going to be available this week, so pass on the word to friends and neighbors!

laugh

GET ON BOARD

Nominations for HHLT Board Sought

July Improv Program

July seems a long time ago, but in the middle of our scorching summer of 2019 we were also treated to rain, hail, electrical outages, and air conditioning failures—all occurring on the evening of our July meeting! An Improv night with props and jokes and spontaneous hilarity turned out to be a test of HHLT's ingenuity as the meeting went on and provided great laughs for the braves members who ventured out in the storm. Thanks to John Johnson and Val Bowman who made us laugh and to Andy Mays who said, "The show will go on!"

Using a racket and colander among other items, John is seen above telling the story of how his family searched for mincemeat for Christmas pie!!

Vice President Ginny McCardle announced that two seats on the Board will be vacated at the end of 2019. She is seeking willing members to run for the seats. Elections for the two year terms will be held in November. If you would like to run or would like to nominate someone (after checking to see that they are willing), please contact Ginny at pmmccardle@comcast.net.

Note Date Change

The last night of HHLT's Fall Production falls on the 3rd Thursday of the month (October 17), our normal meeting date. The October General Meeting will be held on Tuesday, October 22, at the Marsh Mansion, at 7 pm. Nominations for the Board positions will be accepted at the meeting.

Get ready for the arts. This release tells what we have to look forward to September 15 at Arts Alive!

Arts Alive! 2019, a co-production of the Prince William County Arts Council and the Hylton Performing Arts Center in Manassas, is a free, family-fun arts festival on Saturday, September 15, 2019 from 1:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. at the Hylton Performing Arts Center.

This highly anticipated annual community event celebrates the diversity and excellence of visual, literary, and performing artists and ensembles from the Greater Prince William Area. The event offers hands-on arts-related activities for children and adults, as well as artwork and craft vendors with items for sale. Food trucks will offer up some of the best local cuisines and sweets for participants to purchase. Admission and parking to the event is FREE.

The afternoon will feature 30+ indoor and outdoor performances occurring on four stages: Merchant Hall, Gregory Family Theater, and outdoor stages. Manassas Chorale will be performing between 2:45 and 3:05.

Free parking is available in the Tower Lot behind the Hylton Center.

Let's Make A Date!

This Fall Prince William Little Theater is presenting the critically acclaimed play Judgment at Nuremberg by Abby Mann. The play will be presented on Sundays, October 13 and 20 at 2 pm. After these matinee performances, there will be a stage talk during which members of the cast and crew will talk about the play, their work, and answer questions from the audience. Members of HHLT will remember the stirring HHLT performance of Judgment at Nuremberg in 2010. Tickets may be purchased at a reduced rate ($17) for seniors online and over the telephone 888-945-2468 (with a fee) and at the box office Tuesday through Saturday 10 am-6 pm.

How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying by Abe Burrows with music by Frank Loesser was produced by the Sterling Playmakers in July and August, with HHLT's own Tina Mullins playing the role of Miss Krumholtz. Tina gave a marvelous performance as a loyal and long-suffering secretary at the WorldWide Wicket Company. Among the audience was a contingent of HHLT members there to support her. Congratulations Tina on another great performance!

Acting Opportunity!

Bull Run Winery is conducting "Haunted Wine Tours" and is looking for actors willing to play ghostly figures. The positions are paid. Here is the link to the relevant information:

<https://wineryatbullrun.lpages.co/2019-haunted-wine-tour-casting-call/>

