A Message from Andy

“One of the marvelous things about community is that it enables us to welcome and help people in a way we couldn’t as individuals.” Jean Vanier

Community is not only our condo buildings, cul-de-sac get-togethers and neighborhoods but beyond with our churches and synagogues. Our communities also include all of the groups and activities we are involved with in Heritage Hunt. We all support each other and together as a group, we make our lives and communities better.

Our Little Theater group welcomed me when I was newly widowed and had just moved into Heritage Hunt. The members were friendly and asked if I wanted to be involved with their upcoming production which I was excited about. I was a reader (a substitute for rehearsals) for The Odd Couple and I was hooked. The caring HHLT community made me feel welcome and needed. Through the years now, I have made many friends. Come to our next monthly meeting on June 22 and volunteer to help with our upcoming Fall production, A Bench in the Sun. We need you and you will be welcomed.

Andy Mays, President

Upcoming Fall Production: Auditions

Last month the play A Bench in the Sun by Ron Clark was chosen as HHLT’s Fall 2023 production. The dates for performances are October 10, 11, and 12 which may seem way off in the future, but in play time, it is just around the corner!

The cast is small, but mighty with roles for two men (Harold and Burt) and Adrienne (the beautiful former actress who arrives on the scene to add interest to their lives). The play, according to Mel Brooks, is “very wise, very moving, but most of all, very funny.”

Auditions are at the Marsh Mansion: Wednesday, July 12, 2–4 pm in the MM Game Room; Thursday, July 13, 6–8 pm in the MM Library; and Friday, July 14, 2–4 pm in the MM Living Room. Contact Director Valerie Morris if interested and for a script via email at Taftmorris@aol.net.

A Bit of Hollywood Trivia

from Andy Mays

Can you match these famous actors with their original names?

Heritage Hunt Holiday Variety Show

It doesn't seem possible, but once again planning for Heritage Hunt's Annual Holiday Variety Show has begun. Dave Anderson will be the Producer, and hopefully HHLT will be participating in it. The show is held in early December with a couple of rehearsals after Thanksgiving. Each club or individual has approximately 15 minutes for their contribution.

Individuals can participate with monologue, poetry, comedy routine, song, instrumentals, and other acts. Groups can perform skits, dance routines, musical numbers etc. It's time to give some thought to ideas for Little Theater's part and/or for your own contribution. This is a great way to be a part of the Heritage Hunt community!

1. Alan Alda	a. Archibald Leach
2. Ben Kingsley	b. Issur Demsky
3. Cary Grant	c. Virginia McMath
4. Charleston Heston	d. Krishna Bhanji
5. Ginger Rogers	e. Alphonse D'Abruzzo
6. Joan Crawford	f. John Charles Carter
7. Kirk Douglas	g. Lucille LeSueur
8. Omar Shariff	h. Michel D. Shalhoub

Bring your answers to the June meeting and we will see who's the winner.

What's Next?

Let's have fun and at the same time see how well we can "lie." Our activity at the June 22 meeting will be a test of acting and perceptive skills of our members.

"Two Truths and a Lie" consists of members coming up with two facts (true) about themselves and one lie (possible true, but actually not!). The other members will hear your truths and lie and try to determine which is which! Points will be given to the most effective liar and most perceptive guesser!

Come to the meeting June 22 at 7:00 pm prepared with your truths and a lie in any order.

Here is an example:

I rode a camel in Egypt

I fell down the stairs at the White House when I was 12.

I met Princess Anne of England

This is bound to be fun! Come prepared to laugh and learn about our fellow HHLT members.

Annual Picnic

Little Theater's Annual Picnic will be held in September. The location and date will be announced soon.

As usual we will have great food, fellowship, games, and more.

What's more?

A talent show from our very talented members! Songs, comedy, monologues, dance, whatever you would like to perform within 5 minutes.

Please let Sally Peterson know if you'd like to participate (scp211@aol.com)

*Heritage Hunt Little Theater extends our condolences to Betty Hitchcock on the passing of her son Randy.
Betty is a long time member of HHLT and has acted in and directed many plays.
Our prayerful sympathy is with you, Betty.*

Little Theater Outing

Fauquier Community Theater presented Once Upon a Mattress this month, the play that gave Carol Burnett her start in theater.

A group of HHLT members made the trip out to Vint Hill to enjoy the musical presented by the youth of FCT. Playing the leading roles of Princess Winnifred (who prefers to be called Fred), Prince Dauntless, and Queen Aggravain (mother of the prince) were very talented area high school students Grace Tessier, Nathan Brooks, and Hope Carey. The very large cast was completed with 25 local high school and middle school students. Everyone sang and danced their hearts out!

The set included a climbing wall over which the princess scaled the wall of the castle, a moat the princess swam in (skillfully implied, though not seen!), and a stack of 20 mattresses.

The costumes were very impressive with a jester, minstrel, wizard, many Knights and Ladies, and royalty all appropriately suited up.

We greatly enjoyed our theater excursion!

"Now in this next scene, Rosalind, you disguise yourself as a boy."
