A Message from Andy

I am amazed at how fast this year has flown by. There were so many tasks that I wanted to do before this month but next year is another year to accomplish cleaning out the garage, organizing our basement and finding more time to just sit and read.

Heritage Hunt and Little Theater are offering many opportunities to enjoy during the upcoming season, to socialize and participate in. I would much rather join in those than to have “fun” with cleaning. Yes, all that house stuff can be pushed off for later - Seize the day! Carpe Diem! L’chaim!

Please join us for the Heritage Hunt Variety Holiday show where HHLT is presenting three different skits and our Caroling & Holiday party. There is just too much to do - how blessed we are.

Happy and healthy times to you all.

Andy

A Bench in the Sun

What an amazing production for Fall of 2023! HHLT's 37th play surpassed all expectations with humor, compassion, and production values. Set on a minimal stage with only a park bench, two trees, and some straggly flowers, the play portrayed the seasons of the year and life as three senior citizens coped with loneliness and unmet expectations. LSTV superbly reinforced the mood with wonderfully appropriate images on the back wall which illustrated the seasons. The cast consisted of three members on stage (Tom Taggart, Don Norris, and Jocelyn Hamilton) with Helen Gillikin the unseen P.A. announcer punctuating the dialogue with amusing announcements. Valerie Morris was Director with Andy Mays as Producer. Many, many others contributed to the success of the production. A big thanks to all!!!

In Memory of John Gatt

John Gatt, one of the original members of Heritage Hunt Little Theater, passed away on October 9, 2023, with his family by his side. After moving to Heritage Hunt

John became a loyal, hard-working, and talented member of HHLT. He was known for his good nature, creativeness, and talent, as an actor, but especially as a director and playwright. In his first foray into HH theater in 2003, he both wrote and directed The Last Dress Rehearsal. Subsequently he played Mickey Schlumpgarden, a nightclub owner, in Charleston in 2004. Later John directed Trouble at the Tropicana (2005), Reunion at Mt. Sanguine (2009), and Larceny and Old Lace (2010). For several years he acted the the master of ceremonies for the HH Annual Holiday Variety Show

Born March 18, 1934, in Detroit, Michigan, John grew up with his siblings, Connie, Joan, Shirley and Mike, before joining the US Air Force and beginning a military life that took him around the world. His career took him and his family (his wife Dodie, and children Beth, Karen, Theresa, John, Mary, and Samantha) to a variety of locations, with his favorite being Munich, Germany where he was the Deputy Commander of the Army and Air Force Exchange Service (AAFES). His last assignment brought him back to Virginia in 1983 where he worked until his military retirement as a Colonel with 30 years of service. He then began a 25-year career in the automotive industry.

Little Theater wishes to express our appreciation for all John did in the early years of our club. We extend our sympathy to his family and his friends. He will be missed.

In Memory of Ginny McCardle

Ginny McCardle, active and talented member of Heritage Hunt Little Theater for over ten years, passed away in her home on October 8, 2023. She played a variety of roles in ten Little Theater productions. Her versatility allowed her to play a senator, a cook (twice), and a poker-playing man! In addition to HHLT in retirement, she volunteered her time at the Smithsonian's Natural History Museum, played many years of golf and bocce.

Ginny's first Little Theater production was as Mother in Ancestral Voices in 2013. She went on to play Hildegarde Harris in Murder at the Orient Express (2013), Sara Jane in Senior Follies (2014), Cora Gump in A Bad Year for Tomatoes (2015), Catherine in The Book of Murder (2016), Berthe in Boeing, Boeing (2016), Roy in The Odd Couple (2018), Senator Feldman in At First Sight (2018), Muriel in I'm Herbert (2019), and the Announcer in Old Time Radio (2021). Ginny was a voracious reader and book club member, and loved to share what she was reading with her friends and family.

Ginny loved her family fiercely and constantly and is survived by her three daughters and their spouses, Cindy Padgett (Andy), Linda Scibilia (Kerry Campagna), and Lisa Eichinger (Steve), as well as her four granddaughters, Meagan Major (Nick), Zoe Fuller (Arthur), Jillian Eichinger, and Kiley Eichinger. She is also survived by her three stepchildren, Tammy Beals, John McCardle and his daughter Lyric, and Laurie McCardle and her daughter Leah. She was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Pat, her parents, and her three siblings, Lyn, Gordon, and Martin.

A Celebration of Life will be held at Heritage Hunt Golf and Country Club on Sunday, November 19, 2 to 5 pm, in the Ballroom. Please contact Ginny's daughter Cindy Padgett if you would like to attend: c.padgett1@verizon.net

Elections 2024

HHLT holds elections every year in November. The elections are to fill the seats on the Board which become vacant every two years. The vacancies occur alternately with three becoming vacant one year and four the next. This year there are 3 vacancies.

The elections are not for a particular office. Rather they are for a seat on the Board. Officers are decided in a collegial manner at the December Board meeting. Each December the offices can rotate but are not required to change. No one, however, can serve more than 2 consecutive terms (4 years).

For 2024 there are three nominees: Billy Clay, Helen Gillikin, and Gene Schmiel. The election will take place at the General Meeting on Wednesday, November 15.

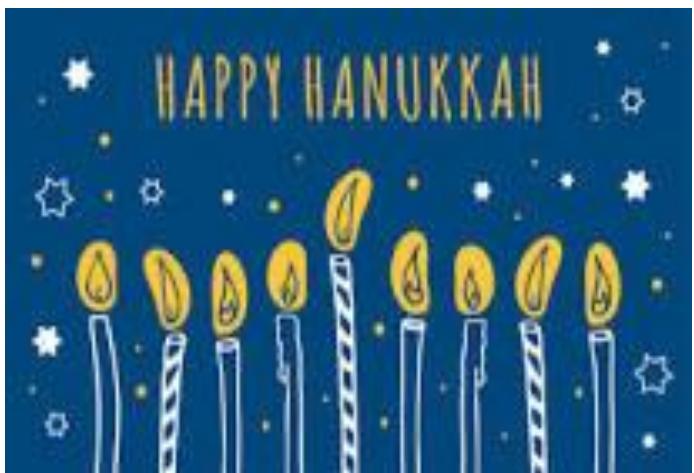

HHLT Annual

Holiday Festivities

Little Theater's Annual Holiday Party will be held on Wednesday, December 13, at Marsh Mansion Living Room and Parlor from 5 to 8 pm. This will be a potluck with a cash bar.

Hope to see everyone there. Please RSVP here if you can make it.

Broadway In the Mountains

What a wonderful experience Gene and I just had! We attended a 5-day Road Scholar program at Montreat Conference Center near Asheville NC. The weather was perfect: the height of the fall color was everywhere we looked. The program was absolutely thrilling: the Story of the Broadway Musical. Starting with the earliest musical shows (Gilbert and Sullivan, vaudeville, George M. Cohan) through Showboat, Oklahoma and the Golden Age of Broadway; on to Hair, Sweeney Todd, Company; then the mega musicals like Cats, Les Misérables, Phantom of the Opera, Lion King, and Wicked; ending with the outrageous and the cutting edge The Book of Mormon and Hamilton. We enjoyed countless clips of original musicals and even better listened to our instructor who was a classically trained pianist.

I hope to tell you more about this amazing experience at a later date.

Directors and Plays

The deadline is drawing near for Play Proposals for HHLT's Spring 2024 production. The ballroom is booked for April 9th, 10th, and 11th, 2024. Are you interested in directing a play or have a play you would love to see HHLT present? Be thinking if you have any dreams of what you'd like to see next! Proposed plays require at least three positive evaluations by HHLT members, a completed Play Proposal form, and an in-person interview with the HHLT Board.
